Notes

- We are keeping same roles as we had last sprint:
 - Zaneerah, Imaan and Ammaarah will be working on the API implementation, and most of the backend stuff
 - Karabo, Raeesa and Tariro will be working on frontend implementation, testing implementation for both frontend and backend.
- Jest has been set up again, the react-router-dom error is no longer there, so it works now and we won't be using vitest for testing anymore.
- So far, we are on track to meet our sprint goal.
